Out of more than 500 employees of the I3A, 281 are seniors researchers, 64 postdoctoral researchers, 118 predoctoral trainees, with 10 technicians and 5 administrative and service staff. Additionally, 40 researchers from others institutions has a joint appointment with I3A.
The I3A is a University Research Institute established by the University of Zaragoza more than 20 years ago. Its strengths include its capacity to bring together research from different engineering related areas and its highly qualified researcher staff able to interleave high standards in knowledge generation with transfer to the industry and society.

Since it was first established, the I3A has grown both nationally and internationally, consolidated a shared vision among scientists and technical experts, and gained recognition as reference in a larger variety fields of engineering research.

Its four strategic divisions, Biomedical Engineering, Information and Communication Technologies, Processes and Recycling, and Industrial Technologies, work for a common objective which is to generate and transfer knowledge to the social and business environment.
